

Our understanding of the practice of law is that it must be highly specialized. Our team has looked at and solved thousand of insurance law cases. In this context, our main practice is to arrange the claims you have regarding insurance companies and the Guarantee Fund trough the Courts and out of them.

“Djikov, Tzonkov & Partners” is a law firm specializing not only in insurance law, but in Trade, corporate and tax law as well.

We work together to provide to all our clients high quality individualized services and we will treat your case seriously and with all due respect. We are fully aware that while we represent many clients at once, your own personal case is the only one that is important to you.

We take all the time necessary to talk to our clients in order to become convinced that they understand each aspect of what is happening as far as their problem is concerned and declare our willingness to participate in the important decisions related to their case.
